MR. THWING'S MISSION.

The press service of the International Reform Bureau says:

The world will soon be fully informed of the doings in and about this opium conference by the syndicate articles to be sent to the press of many lands from Shanghai by our Secretary for China, Rev. E. W. Thwing, who is now making a tour of that country, preliminary to the conference. He has a rare combination of fitness to this work in that he speaks Chinese, Japanese and French as well as English; is skillful alike in newspaper and platform work; knows China and the Chinese as a former missionary in China and more recently a missionary to the Chinese in Hawaii. He bears a letter of commendation from the Chinese Minister in Washington, Mr. Wu Ting Fang, which will be an "open sesame" to all doors there, official and unofficial. There is only one lack, that of adequate financial ammunition. Surely Christians will not allow the President's missionary crusade to fail for lack of funds! He needs to circulate among four hundred millions of Chinese, opinions we have collected from medical missionaries to protect the millions who are breaking away from the opium curse against quacks, and make their reform permanent, and also literature to prevent the threatened substitution of American beer and cigarettes.
